- 1 Outstanding 3 1/4" snuffbox Benjamin Franklin, French, late 18th century. Finely detailed miniature painting on ivory under glass, gold plated metal rims surround top and bottom edges. Body of box is tortoise shell, the exterior side rims and base in a gorgeous lavender enamel. The prettiest snuffbox I have ever owned - and the second most expensive. (The highest priced one was another French tortoise box with an ivory miniature of Franklin, signed and dated during the Revolution I sold it a few years back for $15,000). I bought this for a fraction of what I paid for the first one, so its 8,250.
- 2 Oil painting on canvas in orig gilt frame 28X33, beautiful full color scene of sailing ship flying 30 star American flag and large name pennant "WHIG". Seven men on deck in coats and top-hats. 2" black band at bottom inscribed in gilt "U.S.F. Schr. Whig Presented to Hon Henry Clay by His Friend Capt William Jones." Generally excellent, relined on orig stretcher, scattered retouch in upper sky. I purchased this for my own collection of historical paintings, but even with 22 rooms in the new house, I don't have space to hang everything. 13,000.
- 3 Superb 1780's Battersea enamel box depicting a royal crown "On Washington bold Place a Crown of pure Gold". Few collectors of presidential artifacts realize that at the end of the Revolution there was serious talk of making Washington King of the United States. A well known historical medal shows GW casting a crown to the ground, with the inscription "Washington Refusing the Crown". Bright green base, chocolate brown design on white lid. Couple tiny enamel chips at 8:00. I sold another one of these 15-20 years ago for $4,000, and no other has been seen since. 8,500.
- 4 Very rare blk/wht silk, 2 1/2" X 4 1/2", great slogans. Ext minor very light waterstain at top 1", bold and bright, exc plus. 2,400.
- 5 Wonderful needlework 18X24 done in 10-12 different vibrant colors. Five alphabets, two sets of numerals, federal eagle in wreath, large home, portrait Lincoln, soldier in front of flag, holding musket with full field equipment, large basket of flowers with Bible, hat, candlestick, pen in inkwell. Inscription in gray, salmon, green and magenta thread "Effe Nance Jones - To Honor Our Son - William Campbell Jones - Born Oct 15 1842 Adams County - 17th Regiment - 1865". Generally superb condition - a little minor brown discoloration in the beige muslin background. I didn't have time to research Jones - he's either 17th PA Cav or Inf. 4,750.
- 6 Large 15 1/2" spear point Bowie knife, cutlery handle, 10 1/2" blade with strongly etched floral designs and block lettering "Rorkes Drift - Zululand 1879". Blade in outstanding condition with better than 95% original polish. No doubt owned by a survivor of the battle, who likely had this knife at the time and had it etched as a souvenir. One of the most famous battles in British history. 1,750.
- 7 Charleston SC slave badge "1862 - Servant - #818", used to identify slaves when they were hired out for day labor and moving around about town. Accompanied by lengthy illustrated article. Brass, 1 1/2", nice condition and patina. The only one I've owned with a Civil War date. 1,875.
